After a brief introductory period, City Council took turns asking questions of the applicant. Afterwards, the applicant was given the opportunity to ask questions of City Council. The applicant stated that he was very impressed with Clinton downtown. Two facts that the candidate brought to City Council's attention were his current employer has no recreation department nor water treatment plant.

City Council questioned the candidate as to whether his wife would like it in the City of Clinton. They discussed setting another date so that the spouse, as well as Mayor Pro Tem Becton might be present.
