Clinton Police Department Press Release

The Clinton Police Department responded to a robbery at 401 West Boney Street on Thursday November 30, 2016. Caleb Mills, 18 year old male from Rosewood, NC and Austin Huffman, a 17 year old male from Princeton, NC went to West Boney Street around 6:30 pm to complete an online sale of a motor bike.

The two victims met with three black male suspects. One of the suspects displayed a pistol which was later determined to be a bb pistol. The suspect then shot Huffman in the face with the bb pistol during a robbery attempt. A struggle ensued; the victims fled the area and then called the police. Uniform officers rendered aid to Huffman for an injury to his nose but he refused further medical treatment.

The Neighborhood Improvement Team was called to the scene. The motor bike was recovered at the residence. Investigators were able to identify one of the suspects. Isaiah Jordan Cunningham, 18 year old male whose listed address is 215 West Boney Street was charged with Robbery with a Dangerous Weapon and Assault. He was transported to the Sampson County Detention Center where he is being held under $75,000 secured bond.

The investigation is ongoing and additional arrests are anticipated.
